

Indians of Pennsylvania Group Cooperation

CATEGORY	3	2	1	0
Communication	Student shared research and ideas with his/her group and listened to his/her group on a constant basis. This communication made the final product a great one.	Student shared research and ideas with his/her group and listened to his/her group most of the time. This communication helped make the final product a good one.	Student kept to him/herself much of the time and did not discuss research or ideas with his/her group. This lack of communication hurt the final product.	There was no attempt to share research or ideas with his/her group. The final product suffered because of the lack of communication.
Sharing of Materials	Student shared computer and other materials on a consistent basis.	Student shared computer and other materials most of the time.	Student reluctantly shared computer and other materials. Some arguing and complaining came from the student.	Student never shared computer or other materials with his/her group members. Arguing and complaining caused the final grade to suffer.
Contribution	Student contributed half of the work toward the product. There was an equal amount of effort put forth.	Student contributed a little more than half or a little less than half of the work toward the final product. There was close to an equal amount of effort put forth.	Student contributed either a little amount of work or most of the work toward the final product. There was an unequal amount of effort put forth.	Student contributed either none or all of the work toward the final product.

Date Created: April 02, 2008